

Country: the country you are representing

Delegate: Your name

Committee:

Topic:

School: Your school

Good morning honorable chair and fellow delegates, on behalf of (your president, king, etc) and the people of this great country, this delegation would like to thank the chair for the invitation and encourage all the members of this committee to discuss and debate about the topic assigned.

Brief introduction to the general topic. (We recommend that you write something related to the topic without actually involving your countries actions, if your country is directly involved in the conflict try to use a more neutral position.)

Position of the country you are representing and the position it's supporting. Try to mention the actions your country has taken related to the topic (especially the ones that can't be attacked or you consider vital). You will establish your posture more clearly in this part but please be brief.

The delegation of (your delegation) thinks that some solutions to take within the conflict would be the following:

- Solutions you propose (minimum 3 solutions relevant to the conflict)
- Incorporate long, mid, and short term solutions so you have a complete position paper

This delegation would like to thank everyone for their attention and encourage all the members of this committee in order to find a viable solution for the current situation.

Sources:

They must be in APA format by alphabetical order. (minimum 3 sources)